

Option A

Reporting to the Urban Planning Committee (normal Committee cycle)

- Submissions reported to Urban Planning Committee
- Due to volume of submissions, anticipated reporting to a minimum of five separate meetings
- Meetings are held as per the current timetable (every two weeks)

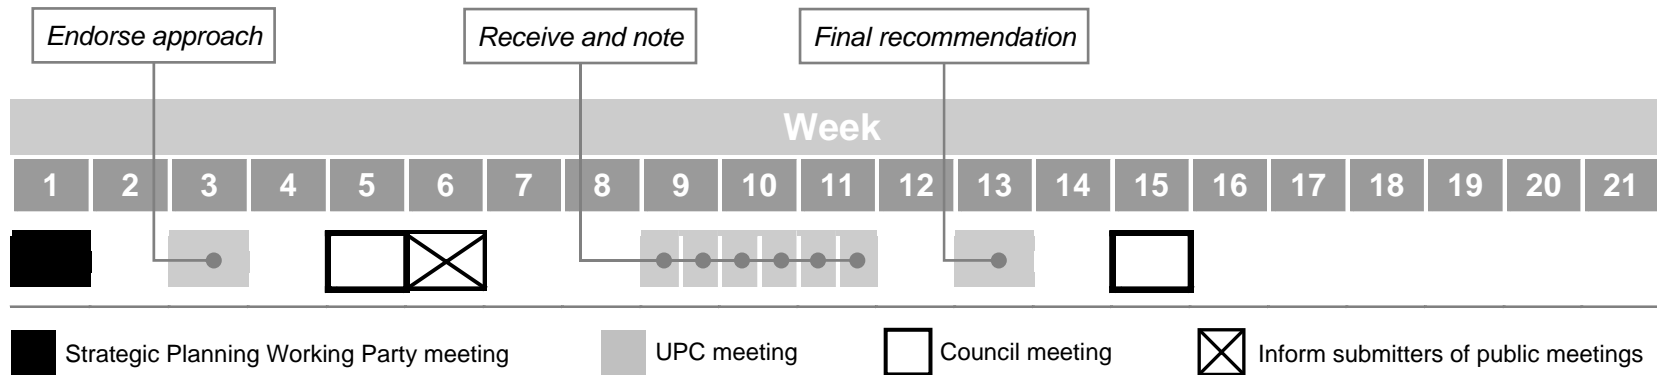

Pros	Cons
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ UPC retains the portfolio for work on the LEP ✓ Current meeting schedule is maintained 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✗ Time ineffective – project may take over 5 months ✗ Other UPC matters are put on hold ✗ Duration of UPC meetings are limited to 2 hours, due to Council meetings commencing at 8.00pm

Option B

Reporting to a series of Urban Planning Committees (special meetings)

- Submissions are reported to the UPC Committee (special meetings)
- Meetings held on Monday, Tuesdays and Thursdays over two successive weeks

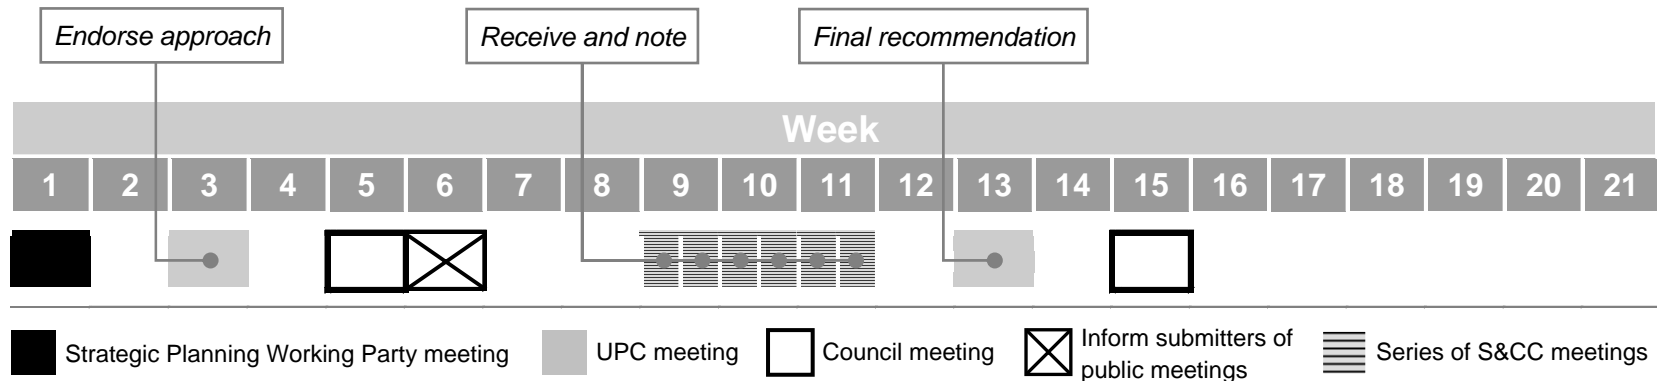

Pros	Cons
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Meetings not limited to two hours ✓ UPC retains the portfolio for work on the LEP 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✗ Difficulty in finding available meeting times ✗ Information overload ✗ Time intensive and high workload for Councillors

Option C

Reporting to a series of Strategic & Corporate Committees (special meetings)

- Submissions reported to specially convened Strategic & Corporate Committee meetings
- Meetings held on Tuesdays and Thursdays over two successive weeks

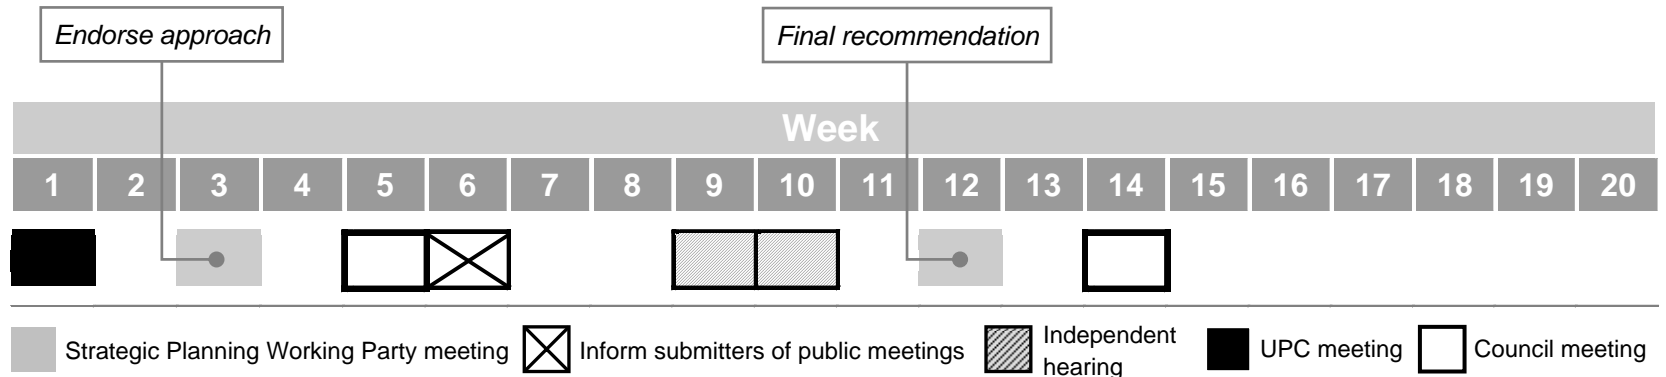

Pros	Cons
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Meeting not limited to two hours ✓ Opportunity for more Councillors to be involved ✓ Potential to achieve a quorum is increased 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✗ SCC does not hold the portfolio for work on the LEP ✗ Difficulty in finding available meeting times ✗ Information overload ✗ Time intensive and high workload for Councillors

Option D

Independent hearing which reports to the Urban Planning Committee

- Independent expert appointed to review submissions and hear verbal representations
- Hearings to be arranged on successive days, including day and evening sessions
- At conclusion, expert provides report to UPC
- Recognised approach to handle a large volume of submissions (White City)

Pros	Cons
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Hearing can take place over the whole day/evening ✓ Hearing is completed in a short period ✓ Independent third party consideration of the issues ✓ Does not interrupt other council responsibilities and reports to UPC ✓ UPC retains the portfolio for work on the LEP 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✗ Cost of consultancy fees – independent expert ✗ Residents may wish to speak at both Independent Hearing and UPC (UPC would then run overtime) ✗ Expectation process will be repeated after formal exhibition phase