

Woollahra Community & Cultural Grants 2017-2018

Organisation	Project Description	Amount Recommended
Australian Art Events Foundation	Each year during the Art Month Sydney festival, Art Month produces a bespoke experience for the arts community and audiences of the east. In 2018, funding is granted for curated walking tours and Art at Night: Paddington and Woollahra precincts.	$ 5,500
Beaches Outreach Project (BOP)	BOP's 'Save a Mate' project aims to empower young people to care for each other and provide their friends and community with support to reduce the harm and shame caused by drug/alcohol abuse. The project will also empower young people experiencing depression and other forms of psychological distress associated with domestic abuse and bullying to reach out to their friends and service providers for help.	$ 7,500
Critical Path	Funding granted for Research Residencies for two local choreographic artists (one Indigenous) to explore what it means to acknowledge country. The artists will engage with the community in addressing how we consider the land, heritage and living culture. The project culminates in a presentation, free of charge for the community.	$ 6,988
Eastern Sydney Suicide Prevention Network	The ESSPN will partner with Jewish Care and the Haymarket Foundation to set up a monthly 'Suicide Impacting Me' Group (SIM Group) to allow a safe place where people worried by aspects of suicide can find support and access professional advice from trained clinicians.	$ 4,825
Inala (Miroma)	The annual Miroma Art Exhibition showcases the creative talents of individuals living with disability who live in the Eastern Suburbs. The exhibition will be held at Gaden Cafe, Woollahra in September.	$ 7,401
Jewish Family Centre	Funding granted for the Fertility Friends pilot program - an opportunity for women struggling with fertility issues to have a close contact with someone who has been through the process themselves. The emphasis is on building a secure and trusting relationship with a peer.	$ 1,800
Marnie Ross	For the 'Little Things Art Competition', encouraging local artists to bring attention to small things that make them happy and express them creatively in a small format.	$ 2,670
NSW Friendship Circle	The 'Friendship Walk' is an annual family fun day in support and celebration of young people living with disability. Held in August, the walk ends at Vaucluse Primary School where there are children's activities and a sausage sizzle.	$ 3,500
REELise Inc.	The REELise Film Festival uses pocket filmmaking to build digital empathy - changing the culture surrounding passive acceptance of cyberbullying and promoting positive mental health outcomes. The 2018 Festival project theme TBH (to be honest) encourages the sharing of authentic stories by young people 10 – 18 years about what it's like to navigate adolescence and adulthood in a digital world.	$ 7,500

Sir Roden &amp; Lady Cutler Foundation Inc.	The Pick Me Up service provides free door to door medical related transport to people in the Woollahra LGA who are physically, mentally, socially or financially disadvantaged.	$ 7,500
St Francis Social Services	DRUMBEAT is a ten-week structured learning program that uses drumming, psychology and neurobiology to build social connections and explore themes such as social responsibility, peer pressure and teamwork. Funding granted to deliver DRUMBEAT to vulnerable young people within the Woollahra LGA, while also creating community events by having each group end with a public performance.	$ 2,960
St Michael's Anglican Church	The annual Rose Bay Neighbourhood Christmas Carols at Pannerong Reserve is hosted by the Rose Bay Good Neighbour Group, Rose Bay retailers, and the Catholic, Greek, Anglican and Presbyterian Churches. It will include a free sausage sizzle and carols, as well as a performance by the Woollahra Philharmonic Orchestra.	$ 5,000
The Paddington Society	'The Definitive History of Paddington' will be a hardcover print book describing the development and many lives of Paddington, including Indigenous life, European settlement, early land grants and subdivision, and Paddington today.	$ 7,500
Waverley Woollahra Art School	Funding granted to support the 9x5 Impressionism Prize, open to amateur to professional submissions alike and culminating in an exhibition.	$ 2,000
WAYS Youth &amp; Family	"A WAYS Safe Summer" (AWSS) is a youth based peer education project which aims to provide health promotion and education regarding STI's, the importance of getting tested, safe sex practices and the risks associated with alcohol and other drugs to young people in Eastern Sydney including Woollahra.	$ 7,500
Woollahra Philharmonic Orchestra (WPO)	The Orchestra plans a continuation of its core program, delivering eight symphonic concerts. They aim to provide access to orchestral performances to the community, including family- and children-focussed programming.	$ 7,500
