

Woollahra Council Community and Cultural Grants Program

October 2020

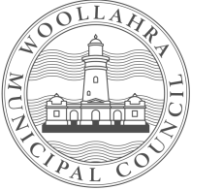

Can your project enrich our community?

Do you, your organisation or group have an idea for an activity or program that might help others in the Woollahra area to connect, be supported or be creative?

Image: NCJWA, Cuddle Bundles project – previous grant recipient.

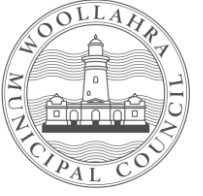

Types of funding available

The Community and Cultural Grants program offers the following:

- Small grants of up to $2,000, available to non-profit community based organisations, groups or individuals, and
- Large grants of between $2,000 and $7,500, available to non-profit community based organisations or groups.

Still not sure if you're eligible? You can refer to the Community and Cultural Grants Policy for applicant and project eligibility or give us a call on 9391 7112.

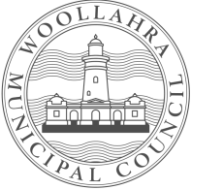

Apply now

1. Application's close midnight Wednesday 11 November.
2. Visit the website – woollahra.nsw.gov.au/grants
3. Read the Policy and Guidelines available on our website.
4. Speak to us about your idea - call Rachel on 9391 7112 or email community@woollahra.nsw.gov.au
5. Submit your grant online via SmartyGrants by the closing date.
6. Grants announced: late December 2020.

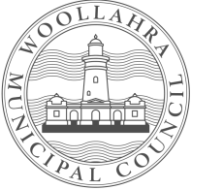

Your project might:

- Support vulnerable members of our community;
- Promote positive mental health;
- Help to overcome social isolation;
- Support the creativity and vibrancy of our community;
- Create an opportunity for community members to come together;
- Educate our community;
- Preserve local history;
- Initiate and support local artists and cultural development; or
- Promote inclusion and accessibility for all members of our community.

Ask yourself the following questions and apply these to your project and application:

- Is there a demonstrated need for your project in the local Woollahra Area?
- What are the desired outcomes of your project?
- Do you or your organisation have the relevant experience to deliver these outcomes?
- Who in our community will benefit most from your project and how will you reach these community members?
- Do you have existing or developing partnerships with community groups or organisations in Woollahra?
- Is your budget well thought out and have you checked the expense items the grant will fund are not capital works items or wages for permanent staff members?

*Please consider how your project and/or activity can be delivered within a COVID-19 environment.

Recently funded programs:

- An accessible sports program;
- Development of a local Men's Table;
- Online art classes for seniors;
- Safe summer education for youth;
- An art exhibition all about the little things that bring happiness;
- Transport for seniors to medical appointments;
- Support groups for new mums;
- Development of dance productions;
- And, an aquatic wheelchair for a learn-to-swim program.

Images of past recipients: Left to right - Critical Path, The Men's Table, Jewish Folk Centre Inc, Sherman Centre for Culture and Ideas.

What happens next?

All applications are assessed by a panel and applicants will be notified of results via email.

Recipients must submit an acquittal soon after project completion.

Stay in touch – if you are successful talk to us about ways we can support your project. If not, ask us for feedback!

Image: Little Things Art Prize – past recipient

