Woollahra Municipality

Woollahra Municipality is located in Sydney's eastern suburbs, about 5 kilometres from the Sydney GPO.

The Municipality is bounded by Port Jackson (Sydney Harbour) in the north, the Waverley Council area in the east, Randwick City in the south and the City of Sydney in the west. The Woollahra Municipality includes the suburbs of Bellevue Hill, Darling Point, Double Bay, Edgecliff, Paddington (part), Point Piper, Rose Bay (part), Vaucluse (part), Watsons Bay and Woollahra.

The total land area is 12 square kilometres including harbour foreshore and beaches. The area is predominantly residential, with some commercial land use, parklands and a military reserve. Natural features of the Municipality include 18 kms of harbour foreshore consisting of rocky headlands, coastal cliffs and beaches, approx. 30 hectares of bushland located in 5 reserves with 3 vegetation communities containing over 300 plant species including 2 threatened and 1 vulnerable species.

Other prominent features include Sydney Harbour National Park, the Macquarie Lighthouse, Gap Park and the award winning Rose Bay Promenade. Woollahra is also the location of some of Sydney's premier shopping precincts such as Double Bay, Paddington and Queen Street, Woollahra.

The traditional custodians of the Woollahra area are the Gadigal and Birrabirragal people.

European settlement dates from 1790, although development was minimal until the 1860s. Land was used mainly for dairy farming and market gardening, with some fishing. Expansion took place in the 1880s and 1890s, continuing into the early 1900s and the inter-war period. Significant development occurred during the immediate post-war years, from the 1950s to the mid 1960s. The population gradually declined from the late 1960s, falling from 63,000 in 1966 to 53,000 in 1976 and then to 51,000 in 1986, but has risen since to 59,431 in 2020.

Integrated Planning and Reporting Framework

The NSW Government requires local councils to deliver their community vision and goals through long, medium and short-term plans, known as the Integrated Planning and Reporting Framework. This promotes best-practice strategic planning across NSW councils to ensure a more sustainable local government sector.

Woollahra Council's IP&R framework includes our Community Strategic Plan and Delivery Program and Operational Plan, which are supported by our Resourcing Strategy.

Progress is monitored and reported to Council through the following: biannual Delivery Program updates, an Annual Report, and the State of Our City Report, which is presented at the second meeting of each new Council.

The diagram below illustrates the hierarchy of plans within the framework and their relationship to State and regional planning.

Community Engagement

Council values the community as a source of local expertise and actively seeks community feedback and input to help shape decisions that affect residents and people who visit, work or go to school in Woollahra. Council also commits to making access to engagement opportunities easy and equitable.

Through community engagement Council will:

- Ensure Council decisions reflect the whole community by incorporating the community's views, concerns and aspirations into the decision-making process.
- Increase community confidence and trust in Council by building or improving relationships with the community through on-going, open and meaningful two-way conversations.
- Encourage the community to actively participate in civic life and to take responsibility for identifying and providing solutions to their concerns.
- Strengthen community capacity by building the community's understanding of how local government operates, how decisions are made, and how they can participate.

Guiding principles

Council's community engagement strategy for the Community Strategic Plan is guided by our values, the principles of social justice and the IAP2 spectrum¹

Principles of social justice

Social justice is a concept which holds that all people should have equal access to wealth, health, well-being, justice, and opportunity. Council should consider the economic, environmental, social and cultural sustainability of its actions. To uphold social justice principles in a local government context, Woollahra Council endeavours to:

- address access and equity issues
- provide cultural activities and community facilities as well as recreation for active living
- plan for growth through urban design in the built environment, while remaining sensitive to heritage issues
- care for public health and safety
- support education, affordable housing initiatives and transport links within our communities
- provide consultation networks.

SOCIAL JUSTICE IN AN ENGAGEMENT CONTEXT
Principle	Meaning
Equity	Inclusive and representative views from the community
Access	Appropriate methods for engagement selected
Participation	The community has a clear understanding of how they can get involved
Rights	People have a right for their views and voices to be heard

Making the Plan

How we consulted

This strategic plan for our future integrates the engagement feedback we have received since our last Community Strategic Plan in 2018. Most recently these engagement opportunities have included:

- Community Satisfaction Survey – 2021
- Focus groups with residents, community groups and strategic partners
- Adopted a Community Facilities Study and commenced its recommendations
- Online engagement at Council’s Your Say Woollahra
- Exhibiting the draft Community Strategic Plan for public submissions prior to adoption.

Working together

Many of our services and strategic plans are directly linked to other levels of government and other service providers that directly or indirectly influence the quality of life within our local area.

We acknowledge these important linkages and aim to work collaboratively to improve the liveability and sustainability of our community. To do this, Council has aligned its Community Strategic Plan with the goals and strategies of the State Government as outlined in the following key plans:

- NSW 2021 State Plan
- Greater Sydney – Eastern District City Plan

Structure of the Plan

Woollahra 2032 is based on four broad and interrelated pillars of sustainability. Under each of these pillars are key goals and strategies for Council, that best summarise what our community values most, to facilitate and deliver in partnership with our community and other government agencies.

Key performance indicators for each of these focus areas will be used to determine where we are and what we have achieved over time. Each key performance indicator will be measured periodically and published in a report to the community.

Our Community Strategic Plan features Focus Areas and Goals. Council’s Integrated Planning and Reporting framework includes four broad interrelated Focus Areas which support a sustainable Council:

- Environmental
- Social
- Economic
- Civic Leadership.

Each area is supported by a number of Goals and Strategies. At the Delivery Program level, there are identified Priorities; at the Operational Plan level, there are supporting Actions.

Details of our key challenges in the future and key performance indicators are also outlined for each Focus Area. Throughout the Community Strategic Plan and its supporting documents, the Delivery Program and Operational Plan, these four focus areas are colour-coded:

- Environmental
- Social
- Economic
- Civic Leadership.

All of our Goals may deliver benefits across all of the four Focus Areas; the grouping reflects the primary benefit only.

Our Goals

Our aim is to deliver services in our focus areas within our scope of influence, to achieve the Goals below:

- 1. A connected, harmonious and engaged community for all ages and abilities
- 2. A supported, enabled and resilient community
- 3. A creative and vibrant community
- 4. Well planned neighbourhoods
- 5. Liveable places
- 6. Getting around
- 7. Protecting our environment
- 8. Sustainable use of resources
- 9. Community focused economic development
- 10. Working together
- 11. A well managed Council

While Council has a significant role in delivering and facilitating many outcomes in the Plan, it has limited direct influence on some. Council will, nevertheless, take a leadership and advocacy role participating in and supporting networks and partnerships to achieve those outcomes.

Our Environmental Focus

Introduction

Woollahra has 18km of harbour foreshore, consisting of rocky headlands, coastal cliffs and beaches. There are approximately 88 hectares of bushland in Woollahra containing more than 400 plant species including three endangered plant species. Seven vulnerable fauna species have also been recorded in the Woollahra area.

The Woollahra Local Government Area is part of the Sydney Metro Catchment. The majority of land in Woollahra drains to the Port Jackson (Sydney Harbour) sub-catchment, with only 5% draining to the Eastern Beaches sub-catchment. There are four significant waterways within the Municipality; Parsley Creek, Cooper Park Creek, Vaucluse Creek and Rose Bay Creek.

A healthy environment underpins the prosperity of our area and it must be considered in everything we do. Local government has a legislative responsibility to protect the natural environment. This means all Council actions must support healthy ecosystems with clean air, clean land and clean waterways. To reduce our impact on the environment and mitigate climate change, Woollahra must continue to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and ensure sustainable use of resources including energy and water.

It is important that Council continues to plan for climate change, adapting to address risks to ensure resilience.

Our Social Focus

Introduction

Our community wellbeing is dependent on our social connections and our sense of community.

Building community harmony is about having a sense of belonging and feeling welcomed. People do not exist in isolation. Strong networks including families, neighbourhoods, community groups, cultural organisations, churches, government agencies and businesses are essential building blocks of our community.

Community wellbeing is influenced by sense of connection with community and place. This can be expressed through participation in community, cultural and recreational activities. Access to facilities, community information and social services is also important to ensure community health, wellbeing and safety.

Woollahra has a unique and distinctive natural and built environment. Its landform includes the prominent cliff faces of Watsons Bay, low lying harbour foreshore areas and land that rises to a ridgeline along Old South Head Road and Oxford Street.

Maintaining local character and amenity is important to Council and the community and urban planning plays a vital role in retaining this residential amenity. Planning, providing and maintaining public places and spaces are of paramount importance to the Woollahra community. Access to these places and spaces is vital in maintaining a liveable and convenient place to live, work and visit.

Our Economic Focus

Introduction

The Woollahra area is distinctly urban in character and is one of Australia's most prestigious residential locations. It is substantially residential, intermixed with shopping centres of various sizes, large and small recreational and open space areas and large private schools.

We support our local economy whilst balancing growth with business and tourism demands and community desires. A prosperous community is one that has a strong economy but also one which is healthy and happy. Our Civic Leadership Focus

Introduction

Our community expects ethical and inspired leadership from all levels of government with a genuine commitment to work together to make our community a better place to live. This includes providing our community with the opportunity to participate in decision-making on things that are important to us, such as infrastructure, transport, public services, facilities, financial management and service provision.

Through responsive community leadership we will demonstrate 'best practice' and work together to achieve a more sustainable Woollahra.

Council can improve community governance by empowering communities to actively engage in civic life, to be involved in the decision-making process and to take responsibility for identifying and providing solutions to their own concerns.

Transparency and accountability – knowing what is done, and why it is done – is extremely important to our community. Community confidence in these areas is achieved through having a strong and effective corporate governance framework of systems, policies and procedures that underpin everything we do as an organisation.
